Tell me…where Thou feedest, where Thou makest Your flock to rest at noon. (Song of Solomon 1:7) These words express the desire of the believer after Christ, and his longing for present communion with Him. Where do You feed Your flock? In Your house? I will go, if I may find You there. In private prayer? Then I will pray without ceasing. In the Word? Then I will read it diligently. In Your ordinances? Then I will walk in them with all my heart. Tell me where You feed, for wherever You stand as the Shepherd, there will I lie down as a sheep; for none but You can supply my need. I cannot be satisfied to be apart from You. My soul hungers and thirsts for the refreshment of Your presence. My soul's rest must be a grace-given rest, and can only be found in You. Where is the shadow of that rock? Why should I not repose beneath it? You have companions – why should I not be one? Satan tells me I am unworthy; but I always was unworthy, and yet You have long loved me; and therefore my unworthiness cannot be a barrier to my having fellowship with You now. It is true I am weak in faith, and prone to fall, but my very feebleness is the reason why I should always be where You feed your flock, so that I may be strengthened and preserved in safety beside the still waters.
