"This is the confidence that we have in Him, that if we ask any thing according to his will, He heareth us: and if we know that He hears us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of Him" (1 John 5:14-15). What a stupendous witness to our prayer-hearing God was George Muller, who had but a shilling to start. When he died he had only 180 pounds to his credit in the bank, but in his life he received and distributed 1,500,000 pounds, yet never appealed to a man. Go see those buildings with their 1,700 windows sheltering 2,200 human beings. I asked him two years before he died, "Did you ever have to miss a meal because God had failed you?" "Never." "Did you ever have to postpone a meal more than a half an hour?" "Never." "Did you ever go to bed without enough provision for the morrow." "No less than five thousand times have I gone to bed with no provision for the morrow." "Did you sleep soundly?" "Every time." My friends, it is a most serious matter that calls for the profoundest prostration, that in all this multitude of possibilities and practical knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ, there should be so few of us who know what it is to make a splendid venture of faith on the omnipotence and omniscience of the unchangeable God. Surely, surely, we ought to fast and pray that we may know something more of the possibilities of God.

- A. T. Pierson
