Announcements

Senegal Trip: Mike, Pam, and Gail made it safely to Dakar, Senegal. They are now in Saint Louis helping with the process of dedicating and opening the clinic. The workers there are very thankful for the supplies that the chapel family provided. Please continue to keep everyone in your prayers as they minister.

Birthday Greetings to:

Annette Shirah.....January 18

These people suffer so much when they choose to follow Jesus. I will share the most amazing story about a Senegalese woman who cooked us a meal, though I can't reveal her name. She was working for missionaries but refused to listen to any talk about the Lord. One night she had a dream in which Jesus came to her and told her that He was the Lord and asked her to follow Him. When she received Christ as her Savior her family beat her, but she would not change her mind. Her husband left her and took their two children. She was kicked out of her home, but she still did not change her mind. With no other refuge, she came to live with the local missionaries. Later her son became a Christian, left home, and has become very active in church work here. Last week, after 12 years, she saw her daughter for the first time since her conversion. Pray for these believers and they give all to serve their Savior! -Email from Senegal
