"Popular preachers of the moment...are all smiles and their message is how the Jesus they speak of can make you life easier, more comfortable. This is far from New Testament teaching. Jesus did not come to make us happy but to make us holy. He did not come to give us a comfortable life here of ease and a long retirement down in Florida on golf courses. He came to give us opportunities to serve Him selflessly and to be part of His kingdom advancement. There is no distinction between clergy and laity in the mandates of Christ regarding discipleship. All believers are called to serve and to follow Him in the New Testament pattern. What is the New Testament pattern? Read the book of Acts. They turned the world upside down!"
