In preparation for the Senegalese Presentation and Dinner next Sunday night, there will not be a fellowship lunch after Bob Lehman's message.

In a brief biography of St. Francis of Assisi, G. K. Chesterton writes: "As St. Francis did not love humanity but men, so he did not love Christianity but Christ.... The reader cannot even begin to see the sense of a story that may well seem to him a very wild one, until he understands that to St. Francis, his religion was not a thing like a theory but a thing like a love-affair." When Jesus was asked to name the greatest command in the Law, He replied, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the first and great commandment" (Matt. 22:37-38). The questioner wanted to test Jesus, but the Lord answered him with the key element in pleasing God. First and foremost, our relationship with Him is a matter of the heart. The way of joy is to love the Lord with all our heart, soul, and mind.
