“Yea, He is altogether lovely.” (Song of Solomon 5:16) In speaking of the loveliness of our Lord Jesus Christ, we could speak at length of his dignity, of His manliness, of His courage. In Him, all the elements of perfect character are in lovely balance. His gentleness is never weak. His courage is never brutal. All other greatness has been marred by littleness; all other wisdom has been flawed by folly; all other goodness has been tainted by imperfection. Jesus Christ remain the only Being of whom, without gross flattery, it could be asserted, “He is altogether lovely.” The loveliness of Christ consists in His perfect humanity. In everything but our sins and our evil natures, He is one with us. He grew in stature and in grace. He labored and wept and prayed and loved. He was tempted in all points as we are—sin apart. With Thomas, we confess Him Lord and God. We adore and revere Him. There is no other who establishes with us such intimacy, who comes so close to these human hearts of ours He enters as simply and naturally into our twentieth century lives as if He had been reared in the same street with us. He is not one of the ancients; He is one with us.                      -Cyrus Scofield
