Fare Thee Well: There will be a goodbye fellowship for Joel and Shirley Wilkerson today at the covered dish lunch. Please take this opportunity to express your fond farewells to them both.

“Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.” (1 Peter 2:5)

Upon observing how the early church functioned in its meetings, it is obvious that the priesthood of all believers was more than just a doctrine to be held; it was a vital truth to be practiced. Visible expression was given to this new way. Believer did not just come to church to listen, they came spiritually exercised to give edification to the body. This method designed by God helps develop spiritual gift rather than it lying dormant while “the clergy” does it all. Just like an athlete—if he doesn’t exercise and practice, he will not be sharp—so a believer who cannot or does not use what God gave him will be weak and rusty.
